Pursuing with Those

G C
God needs some young people
D G
To keep themselves from defilement,
C
Some who will stand against
D G
The current of the age.
C
Who will declare,
D
Lord, from today:
G
We're going to flee

Youthful lusts
D
And pursue

Righteousness
C
Me and you
D
Who call upon the Lord
G
From a pure heart
D
Keep purifying our hearts,
C
Enlightening every part.
D
O Lord, till the church
G
Is all we see.

God needs some young people
To keep themselves from defilement,
Some who will stand against
The current of the age.
Who will declare,
Lord, from today:
We're going to flee

Youthful lusts
And pursue

Righteousness
With the view
To the building of the church
Not wasting time,
Pressing on toward the goal,
Occupied with the prize.
O Lord, we've been wrecked.
We'll build Your church.

(Repeat the last two lines)

1.           D                   Bm
 Don't you want to know your God?
               F#m                G
 What's hidden in His heart for you?
               D                    G
 How much He longs for you to come
               Bm A
 And open up—
               D                    A
 To let Him in to every part
               A                    Bm
 Let Him reveal what's on His heart
               G                A            Bm- D
 What was the joy set before Him?
- Bm                    D
 It was for her, the church—His Bride
               G                    Bm
 It was for her, willingly He died
               G                    A
 She is the joy deep in His heart
               Bm        D
 His masterpiece—
               A        D
 His counterpart.
2.    The Lord chose you to be a part
 Of His great plan, His work of art.
 What wonder! What a privilege—
 To satisfy—
 His yearning to share all He is—
 Divine, unsearchable riches!
 What wisdom, multifarious expressed?
3.    As we enjoy and enter in—
 To all He is then we'll begin—
 To understand the feeling in
 His heart toward us.
 What love that motivated Him!
 To come to us, despite our sin
 Why did He go and sell all that He had?

The Heart of God

1.           C       G
 In a time before time,
               Am       C
 In an age before the ages,
                   C       G       Am
 There was God, all alone, in eternity.
               F           C
 Yet He had a heart's desire.
               F           C
 And an object He required;
               F           C
 A desire in His heart
               F           C
 For a bride, a counterpart
               F           C       G   C
 That was deep inside the hidden heart of God.
2.           So the heavens He spread,
 Earth was made, its foundations laid.
 At His word were the birds and the animals.
 Then He breathed the breath of life in
 To a man created like Him.
 As they walked along the way
 In the coolness of the day
 The intent was still within the heart of God.
3.           Man surveyed what God made
 Giving names, but he never came
 To a mate, and he ached for a counterpart.
 He could taste the 'ternal yearning
 That so long in God was burning!
 Eve was built from Adam's side
 And his heart was satisfied;
 Told the story of the hidden heart of God.
4.           But when Eve was deceived
 What was pure fell beyond a cure.
 Dead to God through the dreaded serpent's subtlety.
 Left creation in a quandary!
 Generations lived in mystery!
 Seeking Job could not perceive
 But persisted to believe
 There was purpose in the hidden heart of God.
5.           In the time He designed
 He was born of a virgin's womb
 To reveal what was sealed from eternity.
 He was born in human history
 To reveal its greatest mystery.
 That the answer for the earth
 Was that Christ so loved the church.
 He would die to satisfy the heart of God.
6.           As the throne had foreknown
 Many men were deceived again
 Through the lies they devised
 He was crucified.
 As the lonely grain was falling
 Still the joy before was calling;
 Blood and water from his side
 Would redeem and build His bride.
 She would satisfy the riven heart of God.
7.           Though His death's final breath,
 Finally fell, He could not be held
 For His life was divine and unbreakable.
 He arises, powers hear it!
 He will court her as the Spirit!
 As the Spirit giving life
 He will find and form His wife.
 She will satisfy the living heart of God.
8.           When He breathed, she received
 His divine personality,
 Moving in, washing sin, death and age away.
 So that He might sanctify her
 By the washing of the water!
 Adding beauty, adding health
 To present her to Himself
 And to satisfy the holy heart of God.
9.           In a time beyond time,
 In an age beyond the ages,
 God and man will be one for eternity.
 Hallelujah, what a story!
 She was brought from gloom to glory!
 And the longing from the start
 For a bride, a counterpart
 Is fulfilled inside the happy heart of God.

It is also by Your mercy we've seen
F                Dm            C
Something so deep in Your heart
F                Bb
You came to earth and sold all You had

Bb                C
Oh save me Lord, from chasing vanity,
Dm                G
From selfish dreams, from all that's binding me—
F                Bb        F        Bb
There's nothing so high, in this universe
F                Bb—C                    F
As giving ourselves—for what's in Your heart.
- 3            You have purposed in time that You'll build Your church
              That nothing prevails over her.
              As we flee to meet with the saints,
              You're building Christ into our hearts.
              Oh this is not an outward activity!
              A meaningful life, one day all men will see—
              Oh Lord stir our hearts, to never depart,
              To give all we are—for Christ and the church.
