

God's Creation is Complete

After God built Eve, His creation was complete. He had taken six days to do a great work of restoring the heavens and the earth and to do much creation work. God's work was beautiful, and was so living. Everywhere there was life. The earth was covered with life. There was grass and trees and other plants, many of them with beautiful flowers and delicious fruit. There were many kinds of colorful birds and animals. Best of all there was man. Adam and Eve were the highest part of God's creation. They were in God's image and likeness and were on the earth to represent God. Everything was so wonderful.

God is Satisfied

All of these wonderful things pleased God's heart. He was so happy and satisfied. He had accomplished so much in these six days. He was finished His work and was ready to rest and to enjoy His creation. And this is exactly what God did, on the seventh day. In our next lesson we will discuss the seventh day, when God and man rested together and enjoyed all that God had made.

God's Creation

- Lesson Ten -

The Sixth Day of Creation (4)

After God had finished all the items of His creation, including the most wonderful one, man, God was still not fully satisfied. Man was alone. God was not satisfied with man being alone. Genesis 2:18 says “The Lord God said ‘It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him.’” God had the desire that Adam would have someone to match him and to make him happy. Since Adam is so much like God, this also tells us that God does not want to be alone either. This is one reason that God created man, so that He could have a big family.

Adam Names the Animals

Even though God knew that none of the animals were a match for Adam, He had all of them come before Adam so that Adam could give them names. Adam named them all, from the smallest ones to the greatest ones. But as Adam was naming the animals, he was also learning that none of them was just like him. There was no animal that could be Adam's counterpart.

Ground Squirrel

Adam needed a counterpart that would be just like himself. This is why God decided to take a part of Adam and use it to build a counterpart for him. Only something that was built from something that was actually a part of Adam would match him.

Memory Verse

“Then the Lord God made a woman from the rib.”

(Gen 2:22)

God Causes Adam to Go to Sleep

When God started to make Adam a counterpart, He first caused Adam to go into a deep sleep. Then God took a rib out of Adam’s side, and from this rib, God build a woman. The woman was a perfect match for the man. When Adam woke up, God brought the woman to Adam. Adam then said “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;

she shall be called woman for she was taken out of man” (Gen 2:23). God intended for the man and woman to be together always.

Together Adam and Eve enjoyed God’s wonderful creation.

God and Man Were Both Very Happy

Eve made Adam very happy. Adam and Eve also made God very happy. They were His delight. With the building of Eve, God’s creation was finally complete. He told them to be fruitful and to have children and to fill the earth. This was such a happy beginning for man and for God.
