The Ministry of the Lord Jesus

- Lesson Fifteen -

Raising the Dead – Raising Jairus' Daughter

I. Overview.

This lesson shows us that the Lord Jesus not only has the power to cure diseases, but He has the power to overcome death. Death comes to all people of all ages, sometimes even to young people. In the gospel of Mark is a story of a young girl who was twelve years old, who became very ill and died. She was the daughter of one of the rulers among the Jews. His name was Jairus.

The Lord Jesus was asked to go to Jairus' home to heal his daughter.

Jairus came to the Lord Jesus and fell at His feet. He begged Him to come to his daughter, who was near death. As Jesus went, news came that the girl had died. Everyone gave up hope. Jesus told him, "Do not be afraid – only believe." He went in to the girl where she was lying and said to her "Little girl, to you I say arise." Immediately the girl rose up and walked. All were amazed. Jesus is not only able to heal all our diseases, but also to give us life.

II. Memory Verse.

"Truly, truly, I say to you, An hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live."

(John 5:25)

III. Lesson.

This lesson and the next one show us that the Lord Jesus is not limited to healing the sick. He is also able even to raise the dead. Only God can raise the dead. By raising people from the dead, Jesus showed the people that He Himself, in fact, is God.

Jesus was not concerned about the report that the girl had died. He was going to raise her from the dead.

Jairus' Daughter Dies

There was a fine man among the Jews who's name was Jairus. He was a ruler of the synagogue. His twelve year old daughter was very sick – near death. Jairus came to Jesus, seeking His help. He entreated the Lord to come to heal his daughter. But while the Lord was on the way, someone came to tell them that the girl had died. Jesus told Jairus not to worry, but to believe. He only allowed Peter, James and John to accompany them the rest of the way.

Jesus Raises The Girl From the Dead

Jesus was not concerned about the report of the girl's death. Rather, He continued to go to Jairus' home. When He arrived, there were many people weeping because of the child. Jesus told them that the girl was not dead, but was only sleeping. The unbelieving crowd just laughed at him. The reason that He told them that she was only sleeping was because He knew that she believed in God and that He would raise her from the dead. When a believer dies, it is like he is only sleeping, for God will eventually raise all His believers from the dead.

The Lord put the unbelieving crowd outside and came to the girl. He brought the child's parents into the room. He then went to the girl and took her hand and said to her "Little girl, I say to you arise." The girl immediately rose and walked about. Everyone was amazed. The Lord Jesus told them to give her something to eat.

Nothing Can Stop the Lord Jesus

This account in Mark's Gospel should give us great encouragement. What a Savior we have! He is able to heal all the sicknesses and even to raise the dead. He is fully able to meet all our need. All that we need to do is to have faith in Him and to come to Him. He fully understands our entire situation.
